

Nine Raisins of Gin and going the extra mile

Walking up Dorchester high street on a Saturday I looked up to see Judge Jeffrey's sour face looking down at me. Not even the dour Judge would keep Ragamuffin Brian, Sue nor me out of Dorchester tonight. JC and Angelina Grimshaw were in town to play for the Dorset Blues Society. It was founded by Tom Hopkins who with a great bunch of volunteers share a passion for music that is "up close and personal."

We came to this old schoolhouse with its bell on the roof to hear the Grimshaws uncork another priceless performance. We're chuffed we came the extra mile. I left the nine raisin gin with Angelina . . . Ragamuffin Mike

JC AND ANGELINA GRIMSHAW On a Dorset Blues Night

Saturday, April 19th, 2008

JC Grimshaw guitars, dobro, mandolin, vocals

Angelina Grimshaw guitar, vocals

www.village-bike.co.uk

from the first set

1. Going Away (Angelina Grimshaw)
2. Hestitation Blues
3. Can't Help Loving That Man
4. Crazy Blues
5. Statesboro Blues (Blind Willie McTell)
6. Corn Mill Broke Down
7. Old Jack Lightnin' (Johnny and JC Grimshaw)

from the second set

8. Solkay Bright (Hawaiian Tune)
9. Weatherman (JC Grimshaw)
10. Show Some Kindness (JC Grimshaw)
11. Hurry Home Blues (JC Grimshaw)
12. Gladston (Johnny and JC Grimshaw)
13. Fire Burning Bright (Angelina Grimshaw)
14. Broken Hearted Blues (JC Grimshaw)
15. Dance When You're Living (Johnny and JC Grimshaw)

encores

16. Old Joe Clark
17. The Very Thought Of You